2 964 Decisions From the Revue Légale Are Now Available Online Thanks to CAIJ-CanLII Collaboration

Montreal, April 15th 2015 – The Centre d'accès à l'information juridique (CAIJ) has acquired 2 964 court decisions compiled in the Revue Légale by way of exclusive License from Wilson & Lafleur, including all decisions published from 1970 to 2012, along with a selection of important decisions published before 1970. These decisions were added to CAIJ's jurisprudential corpus as well as to the Canadian Legal Information Institute (CanLII)'s data bank.

With respect to the content of the Revue Légale, Mr Claude Wilson, Chairman and Managing Director at Éditions Wilson & Lafleur, explains the following: “the Revue Légale is a collection of judgments from the Cour d'Appel, the Cour supérieure, and the Cour du Québec created with the purpose of providing access to unpublished judgments. It is primarily made up of civil law decisions”.

Since 2002, CAIJ has been enriching its database with legislation, by-laws and jurisprudence obtained from CanLII. For the second time in the last few months, CAIJ has collaborated with CanLII in order to increase the jurisprudence content available online. According to Mr Richard Boivin, Managing Director at CAIJ, “this partnership allows CAIJ members and CanLII users to gain online access to a selection of judgments which until now were available only in paper format”. M<sup>e</sup> Colin Lachance, President and CEO at CanLII, states that his organisation “is grateful for this investment made by CAIJ”.
